MEDICINAL.

Children

Have "eyes bigger than their stomachs," according to an old saying. They overeat themselves, and are tempted by all sorts of injurious and indigestible edibles. As a consequence the foundation of serious stomach trouble is often laid in childhood.

For children with "weak" digestion or whose stomachs are diseased, Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery may be confidently recommended. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, so that the nourishment contained in food is perfectly assimilated and the puny child is built up by food into a condition of robust health.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery contains neither alcohol nor narcotics. Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition.

Mrs. Ella Gardner, of Waterview, Middlesex Co., Va., writes: "My little daughter is enjoying splendid health. I am glad I found a doctor who could cure my child. When she was badly ill I gave her Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and she was soon right. She took twelve bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' eight bottles of 'Pelle's' and one bottle of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy and she is well. We thank God for your medicine."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only cure indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy cures all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

PROBABILITIES OF WAR.

War with Russia is regarded as unavoidable, and the Tokio press is urging the immediate opening of hostilities. All of the banks are withholding funds, and it is believed that this is the result of official instructions. The government has completed and perfected arrangements for the transportation of troops and supplies, and the people calmly await developments. The continued dissemination of optimistic views from Berlin causes genuine surprise and regret here.

A dispatch from Shanghai says Chinese cruisers are preparing for active service. They are taking on board ammunition and supplies.

Diplomatic circles in St. Petersburg confidently expect that the Russian answer to the Japanese proposals will be handed to the Japanese Foreign Office by Baron de Rosen, Russian ambassador to Japan, within a very few days, and do not expect grave results to follow. In other quarters the conciliatory attitude of both governments inspires belief that the answer will pave the way to further negotiations, if, indeed, it does not directly lead to a pacific settlement of the trouble.

The characteristic note in the press of St. Petersburg yesterday is the doubt about the attitude of the United States in the event of a war between Russia and Japan.

The report that the Russian volunteer fleet, cruisers Kazan and Ekaterinoslav, carrying munitions of war and warships to the Far East, have been recalled to the Black Sea is officially denied. According to the rumor the vessels were recalled as the possibility of their capture was feared. The Ekaterinoslav left Singapore Saturday last for Port Arthur.

No news has been received by the Japanese legations in London or apparently by the Foreign Office yesterday concerning the Russo-Japanese difficulty in the Far East, and according to Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister, the situation remains unchanged.

Within a few days the cruisers Kasaga and Nisino, formerly the Morono and Rivadavia respectively, which were bought by the Japanese government from the government of Argentina, and which were built at Genoa, will be formally delivered to Japan. Immediately on their delivery the Japanese flag will be run up and the Japanese Legation hopes thereby to avoid any objections on the part of the Italian government regarding the sailing of the cruisers should hostilities commence before they are ready to put to sea.

It is said that no little excitement prevails among the officers of the British home squadron, who are under the impression that they may at any moment be ordered to replace the channel squadron, which would be sent to the Mediterranean should the government deem it advisable to strengthen its naval force in the Far East. In the home squadron, which is usually regarded as a reserve and training unit of the navy, all leaves of absence have been stopped. Extra supplies of ammunition have been taken on board and the men and ships are kept in a state of alertness such as has not existed for years.

Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister, says he assumed that the marine engineers from the Clyde who left for Japan have been engaged for the transport fleet, though the Minister says he has no definite knowledge of the circumstances of their departure.

GREEK WOMEN OF PARIS.

Of all the brilliant social circles in Paris none is more distinguished than that of the Greek colony. The frequent visits of King George to the French capital are ample proof of its attractions.

Mrs. Delany, the wife of the Greek Minister to France, is the social arbiter. By her captivating grace and delightful intellect her sway is absolute. The Minister's sister, Mrs. Balli, is a great favorite in the most exclusive Parisian society. Invitations to her receptions are felt to be a distinction.

Another charming figure in the Greek group is Mrs. Scrine, the wife of the celebrated Dr. Scrine.

One of the most gracious personalities is that of the pretty Viscountess Vanden Brule. She is the daughter of the chief surgeon of the Greek army, who organized the company of Greek volunteers who fought for France in 1870.

King George is a great admirer of beauty. An anecdote is told of him apropos of this penchant. One of his subjects, with whom he is on familiar terms, who is a fervent archeologist, has an uncommonly pretty wife. It happened that he was directing an excavation one day, in search of a buried Venus. King George passed by, and noticing the pretty wife sharing the labors of her husband, inquired of the interested archeologist: "But where, my friend, did you find this present Venus?" indicating the lady.

The King is extravagantly fond of animals. After the death of his daughter, Alexandra, he cherished her griffin as if it were a child. Everyone in the palace had to consider to show the dog the greatest consideration. But the griffin died, and since that time no one ever speaks of dogs before the King, so keen was his grief for the loss of his griffin.

"I am pleased to give my experience with Wine of Cardui for its help. After my first baby was born I could not seem to regain my strength, although the doctor gave me a tonic which he considered very superior, but instead of getting better I grew weaker every day. My husband came home one evening with some Wine of Cardui and insisted that I take it for a week and see what it would do for me. As he seemed to have so much faith in it I did take the medicine and was very grateful to find my strength slowly returning. In two weeks I was out of bed and in a month I was able to take up my usual duties. I am very enthusiastic in its praise."

here, as are their ambitions, triumph and defeat. Healthy women do not suffer miscarriage nor does a woman who is healthy suffer tortures at childbirth. It is the woman who is ailing—who has female weakness—who fears the ordeal of becoming a mother. Wine of Cardui builds up the womanly in a woman. It stops all unnatural, distressing and irregularities which are responsible for barrenness and miscarriage. It makes a woman strong and healthy and able to pass through pregnancy and childbirth with little suffering. After the ordeal is passed the Wine prepares a woman for a speedy recovery to health and activity.

Wine of Cardui, in re-inforcing the organs of generation, has made mothers of women who had given up hope of ever becoming mothers. Wine of Cardui will cure almost any case of barrenness except cases of organic trouble. How can you refuse to take such a remedy that promises such relief from suffering? Wine of Cardui simply makes you a strong woman, and strong, healthy women do not suffer. They look forward to motherhood with joy.

MOTHERHOOD is the noblest duty and highest privilege women can achieve or aspire to. Without this privilege women do not get all there is in life—too often they go through the world discontented, wrapped up in their own selfish cares and troubles. How different is the happy mother, watching her children grow into manhood and womanhood. A mother lives as many lives as she has children—their joys and sorrows are Croup.

The peculiar cough which indicates croup is usually well known to the mothers of croupy children. No time should be lost in the treatment of it, and for this purpose no medicine has received more universal approval than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Do not waste valuable time in experimenting with untried remedies, no matter how highly they may be recommended, but give this medicine as directed and all symptoms of croup will quickly disappear. For sale by Richard Gibson.

Domestic Troubles.

It is exceptional to find a family where there are no domestic ruptures occasionally, but these can be lessened by having Dr. King's New Life Pills around. Much trouble they save by their great work in Stomach and Liver troubles. They not only relieve you, but cure, 25c, at E. S. Leach & Son's drug store.

What's In a Name?

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, discovered some years ago how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for Piles. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding Piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises, and all skin diseases DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine. Sold by all druggists.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of stimulants in applying liquids to the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price, including the spraying tube, is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the secretions but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.
